At 9:26 a.m. Commissioner Hoagland made a motion to go into executive session pursuant to Idaho Code §74-206 (a) personnel. Commissioner Aberasturi seconded the motion. Merrick – aye, Aberasturi – aye, Hoagland - aye. Motion was unanimous. No action was taken. Open session was resumed at 9:31 a.m.

Discussion with 911 Coordinator Studor – reprogramming current radios with the County used emergency frequencies versus purchasing new radios was discussed. How to pay for either of the costs was discussed and it was suggested that a portion of incoming ARPA funds to be earmarked for first responder equipment upgrades and repairs and could then be used for new radios. This item will go on next week's agenda, as either discussion or action item (pending further information from Grand view Ambulance and Bruneau QRU).

Third quarterly reports were gone over and the third quarter jail inspection was done.

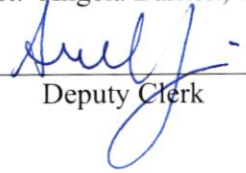

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Dated this 17th day of October, 2022
